

FIGURE 1

1. Examples A, B and C include architectural details as required by Condition No. 22.A.1.

2. Example D demonstrates a building with variation in form as required by Condition No. 22.A.2. E shows no variation.

3. Example F uses transitions between new and existing development as required by Condition No. 22.A.3. G has no transition.

4. Example H creates transitions between commercial and residential areas as required by Condition No. 22.A.4. I has no transition.

BUILDING ORIENTATION

5. Examples J and K show parking lots located in the rear and side yards as encouraged by Condition Nos. 22.B.1 and 2. L shows building oriented with parking lot in the front yard.

